CAREERS

Many English majors are concerned with what types of careers they can obtain after graduation. Rest assured the options are practically endless. STUDENTS OFTEN PURSUE CAREERS IN:

- Marketing
- Public relations
- Technical Writing
- Communications/Media
- Editing
- Publishing
- Blogging/Social Media
- Consulting
- Law
- Medicine

. . . just to name a few.

IF YOU HAVE NO IDEA WHAT YOU WANT TO DO, take a FREE assessment evaluation with WisCareers located by entering the word "WisCareers" in the search box of your MyUW account. Once you've launched WisCareers also known as Career Locker, simply click on the "Assessments" tab to begin your evaluation. L&S Career Services can also provide assessment services to you.

In order to better equip you for successful college to career transition a wide variety of resources are available to help you pursue relevant internships/careers related to your academic pursuits.

- Department of English Careers Website (http://www.english.wisc.edu/undergraduate-advising-tab.htm) Job Search Preparation aids such as resumes, cover letters, interview preparation, salary negotiation and other tools. There are numerous Job Sites and Resources available on this web page too.

- L&S Career Services (http://careers.ls.wisc.edu/students.htm) - helping you with every stage of planning a career, including resume building, cover letters, internships, networking, job searching, and interviews.

- BuckyNet (http://careers.ls.wisc.edu/buckynet--students.htm) – connecting you with employers for internships and full time jobs.

- University of Wisconsin Student Job Center (http://jobcenter.wisc.edu/) – Paid part-time jobs around campus. Specifically check out the "Communications" categories. Lots of opportunities to get paid to write, edit, market and communicate!

- Pamela Garcia-Rivera – UW Journalism Career Advisor - contact her for assistance in obtaining media jobs. To make an appointment email pgarciariver@wisc.edu or check her schedule on WisCal at https://calendar.wisc.edu/scheduling-assistant/public/profiles/RxcjgWKr.html

- Current Listings (https://journalism.wisc.edu/career-services/current-listings/) – An excellent directory of current part time internships and full time career opportunities sponsored by the Journalism Department.